

Coming in April 2023:
An updated look for Liberty!

We are pleased to announce that we are enhancing the look of Liberty and will be releasing such in April! This new look for Liberty is modernized and functional.

While the screens will look updated, we have not changed any functionality or moved any menus, pages, or fields. This update provides for more responsive page designs on various devices.

More details about the new Liberty look and feel will be communicated in April.

As always, if you have any questions, please contact your Axos Client Service Advocate.
