

Fund Merger Notification

The Fidelity Board of Trustees has approved the merger of Fidelity Advisor Short-Fixed Income Fund into new Advisor share classes of Fidelity Short-Term Bond Fund on or about July 15, 2016. Fidelity Short-Term Bond fund has the same investment objective and strategies as FA Short Fixed-Income Fund, so this merger does not require shareholder approval. Shareholders have already been notified.

After the close of business on July 15, 2016, investments in Fidelity Advisor Short-Fixed Income Fund will automatically be converted to shares of equal value of the acquiring Fidelity Advisor Short-Term Bond Fund. The fund numbers, CUSIPs, trading symbols, and Tax ID number of the closing funds will no longer exist at the completion of the merger.

Fund numbers, CUSIPs, trading symbols and a Tax ID number for the new share classes of the Fidelity Short-Term Bond Fund, which opens for trading on July 15, 2016, are provided in the “acquiring fund” table below:
